

Picket Mark Janus and the Washington Policy Center

Shame the Freeloader!

The lead plaintiff in the anti-labor Janus vs. AFSCME case is speaking in Bellevue about the push to make Washington state "Right to Work" for less. Janus wants the right to freeload off the gains his public sector union has secured through collective struggle. He is a featured speaker of the Washington Policy Center at their "Solution Summit."

The agenda of the Washington Policy Center includes trying to bankrupt unions, expand charter schools, and rollback taxes on big businesses. This reactionary "think tank" is part of a national network of groups supported by the billionaire Koch Brothers and other dark money sources. Their goal is to kill Unions and smash the rights of all workers.
